

Hazelwood v. Kuhlmeier / Vocabulary •

As you read the background summary of the Hazelwood case, look for the important vocabulary terms. When you come to one of those terms, look at this page for its definition. Then, check to see if you understand the definition by either sketching a picture of what you think it means or by putting it in your own words.

1. appeal (appealed)

Define: to formally request that a lower court decision be examined and reconsidered by a higher court

Express this term in your own words or in a drawing:

2. ensor

Define: to examine and remove information to prevent others for access to it.

Express this term in your own words or in a drawing:

3. interfere (interfered; interference)

Define: to create a distraction or obstacle.

Express this term in your own words or in a drawing:

4. reverse (reversed)

Define: to overturn the decision of a lower court and decide the case differently.

Express this term in your own words or in a drawing:

5. violate (violated)

Define: to break or disregard (a law or promise, for example).

Express this term in your own words or in a drawing: